

An illustration of a man with a beard and messy hair, wearing a stained white t-shirt and grey pants, sitting in a green armchair. He is holding a silver can in his right hand and a video game controller in his left. He has a smug, relaxed expression. In front of him is a wooden coffee table cluttered with a pizza box, a red can, a game controller, and crumpled paper. To the right, a young boy with brown hair, wearing a blue shirt, sits on the floor, looking up at the man with a thoughtful or perhaps disappointed expression, resting his chin on his hand. The background shows a messy room with clothes on a shelf and papers on the floor.
